

FUJITA MEMORIAL GARDEN

Kenichi Fujita, a Hirosaki native and the first president of the Japan Chamber of Commerce and Industry, commissioned this villa in 1921.

The expansive 5.4-acre grounds feature a hilltop garden with stunning views of Mt. Iwaki, and a lower garden known for its peaceful pond and irises.

After your stroll, relax at the “Taisho Roman Cafe” located inside the historic Western-style house, where you can enjoy a variety of local apple pies.

You can also find delicious sweets and local crafts at the on-site “Takumi-kan.”
