

Saishoin Temple Five-Storyed Pagoda

Saishoin Temple was the most prestigious temple in the Hirosaki domain. Its iconic five-story pagoda, completed in 1667, is one of only 22 surviving from the Edo period (1603–1867). Standing at 31.2 meters, it is celebrated as the northernmost historical five-story pagoda in Japan.

Nearest Stop

Honcho

Website